CASE NO. 1:20-MJ-00074 SKO

STIPULATION REGARDING EXCLUDABLE
TIME PERIODS UNDER SPEEDY TRIAL ACT;
FINDINGS AND ORDER

DATE: October 15, 2020
TIME: 2:00 p.m.
COURT: Hon. Stanley A. Boone

17 This case is set for a preliminary hearing on October 15, 2020. This Court has issued a series of 18 General Orders to address public health concerns related to COVID-19 and to suspend jury trials in the 19 Eastern District of California.

20 Although the General Orders address the district-wide health concern, the Supreme Court has 21 emphasized that the Speedy Trial Act's end-of-justice provision "counteract[s] substantive 22 openendedness with procedural strictness," "demand[ing] on-the-record findings" in a particular case.
23 Zedner v. United States, 547 U.S. 489, 509 (2006). "[W]ithout on-the-record findings, there can be no 24 exclusion under" § 3161(h)(7)(A). Id. at 507. Moreover, any such failure cannot be harmless. Id. at 25 509; see also United States v. Ramirez-Cortez, 213 F.3d 1149, 1153 (9th Cir. 2000) (explaining that a 26 judge ordering an ends-of-justice continuance must set forth explicit findings on the record "either orally 27 or in writing").

28 Based on the plain text of the Speedy Trial Act—which Zedner emphasizes as both mandatory

1 and inexcusable—General Orders 611, 612, and 617 require specific supplementation. Ends-of-justice
 2 continuances are excludable only if “the judge granted such continuance on the basis of his findings that
 3 the ends of justice served by taking such action outweigh the best interest of the public and the 4 defendant in a speedy trial.” 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A). Moreover, no such period is excludable unless 5 “the court sets forth, in the record of the case, either orally or in writing, its reason or finding that the 6 ends of justice served by the granting of such continuance outweigh the best interests of the public and 7 the defendant in a speedy trial.” Id.

8 The General Orders exclude delay in the “ends of justice.” 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7) (Local Code
 9 T4). Although the Speedy Trial Act does not directly address continuances stemming from pandemics, 10 natural disasters, or other emergencies, this Court has discretion to order a continuance in such 11 circumstances. For example, the Ninth Circuit affirmed a two-week ends-of-justice continuance 12 following Mt. St. Helens’ eruption. Furlow v. United States, 644 F.2d 764 (9th Cir. 1981). The court
 13 recognized that the eruption made it impossible for the trial to proceed. Id. at 767-68; see also United 14 States v. Correa, 182 F. Supp. 326, 329 (S.D.N.Y. 2001) (citing Furlow to exclude time following the 15 September 11, 2001 terrorist attacks and the resultant public emergency). The coronavirus is posing a 16 similar, albeit more enduring, barrier to the prompt proceedings mandated by the statutory rules.

17 In light of the societal context created by the foregoing, this Court should consider the following
 18 case-specific facts in finding excludable delay appropriate in this particular case under the ends-of-
 19 justice exception, § 3161(h)(7) (Local Code T4). If continued, this Court should designate a new date 20 for the preliminary hearing. United States v. Lewis, 611 F.3d 1172, 1176 (9th Cir. 2010) (noting any 21 pretrial continuance must be “specifically limited in time”).

22 STIPULATION

23 Plaintiff United States of America, by and through its counsel of record, and defendant, by and 24 through defendant’s counsel of record, hereby stipulate as follows:

- 25 1. By previous order, this matter was set for preliminary hearing on October 15, 2020.
- 26 2. By this stipulation, defendant now moves to continue the preliminary hearing until 27 January 14, 2021, at 2:00 p.m. and to exclude speedy trial and indictment time between October 15, 28 2020, and January 14, 2021, under Local Code T4.

3. The parties agree and stipulate, and request that the Court find the following:

a) The government has represented that initial discovery associated with this case includes thousands of pages of investigative reports, social media account records, interview recordings, photographs, cell phone extractions, and other media evidence. All this discovery has been either produced directly to counsel and/or made available for inspection and copying.

b) Counsel for defendant desires additional time to review the discovery, consult with this client, conduct further investigation, and discuss a possible resolution of the case with the government.

c) Counsel for defendant believes that failure to grant the above-requested continuance would deny him the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, taking into account the exercise of due diligence.

d) The government does not object to the continuance.

e) In addition to the public health concerns cited by General Order 617 and presented by the evolving COVID-19 pandemic, an ends-of-justice delay is particularly apt in this case because counsel and other relevant individuals have been encouraged to telework and minimize personal contact to the greatest extent possible. It will be difficult to avoid personal contact should the preliminary hearing proceed.

f) Based on the above-stated findings, the ends of justice served by continuing the case as requested outweigh the interest of the public and the defendant in an indictment or trial within the original dates prescribed by the Speedy Trial Act.

g) For the purpose of computing time under the Speedy Trial Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3161, et seq., within which an indictment must be filed and within which a trial must commence, the time period of October 15, 2020 to January 14, 2021, inclusive, is deemed excludable pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A), B(iv) [Local Code T4] because it results from a continuance granted by the Court at defendant's request on the basis of the Court's finding that the ends of justice served by taking such action outweigh the best interest of the public and the defendant in a speedy indictment/trial.

4. Nothing in this stipulation and order shall preclude a finding that other provisions of the Speedy Trial Act dictate that additional time periods are excludable from the period within which an indictment must be filed and a trial must commence.

IT IS SO STIPULATED.
